

welcome than a letter from home.

God bless you all and may we all be united again in Peace.

Yours,

Don

P. S.

This letter was written in pieces, during short breaks on a motor convoy eastward thru Germany, since we don't stop anywhere long enough to write a good letter, or else when we stop we're too busy.